

What is Executive Build?

Executive Build is a premier fundraiser by Habitat for Humanity Seminole-Apopka that brings together local CEOs and executives to address the critical need for affordable housing in Central Florida. Executive Build offers a hands-on opportunity for business leaders to directly contribute to the community by helping to build homes for local families. Through this initiative, participants help spotlight the transformative power of homeownership, strengthen community ties, and become part of the solution to advocate for affordable homeownership.
